

Federal Paid Leave May Be on the Horizon, Says Houston Regional Managing Partner

Publication

11.30.18

In Texas, Austin and San Antonio passed ordinances requiring mandatory paid sick leave for workers employed by private employers. And, while the Texas legislature has filed a bill to override such municipal mandates, U.S. legislators in both parties have floated paid leave schemes, suggesting that federal paid leave may be just over the horizon, Steve Roppolo says in an article for Law360.

To read the full article, visit Law360. (subscription required).

Related People

Stephen J. Roppolo

Partner

713.292.5601

Email