

Healthcare Co-Chair Discusses Judge's Ruling on CMS Vaccine Mandate

News

11.22.21

In an interview with Modern Healthcare, Kevin Troutman shares his perspective on a ruling in a case challenging the Centers for Medicaid and Medicare Services' COVID-19 vaccine requirement for all employees at Medicare- and Medicaid-participating healthcare facilities. Kevin explained that “anybody who's covered by [CMS's mandate] is covered because they chose to take that route and they chose to comply with the conditions of participation.” As a result, Kevin adds that “...it's going to be a little harder for them to show that the CMS mandate now is too onerous and too burdensome.”
