In an interview with Law.com, Alex Castro discusses the current environment facing employers as vaccine mandates continue to be debated in court.

“I think the bigger impact is practicality,” he said. “The vaccine mandates recently started picking up nationally and now everybody’s being told from one quarter or another, they have to pump the brakes. I get calls like this all the time. Our clients are confused. They don’t know what to do.”

Additionally, Alex said he advises employers to remain prepared for an injunction to lift, noting “all the different federal mandates that are out there and that are embroiled in legal challenges have all been halted, but that doesn’t mean that they’re dead.”
