

Irvine Attorneys Discuss No-Rehire Clauses in Settlement Agreements

Publication

12.28.18

In their bylined article for Today's General Counsel titled "How a No-Rehire Agreement Unraveled," Irvine Partner Usama Kahf and Associate David Rashe examine the Ninth Circuit decision in Golden v. California Emergency Physicians Medical Group, discussing the legality of no-rehire clauses in settlement agreements. Usama and David review the Golden decision, as well as two other appellate decisions addressing the issue. They conclude their article by encouraging employers to review and update their settlement agreements in light of the Golden decision.

To read the full article, visit Today's General Counsel.

Related People

Usama Kahf, CIPP/US

Partner

949.798.2118

Email

Related Offices

Irvine