

Nan Sato Elected to Philadelphia Bar Association Board of Governors

News

12.20.21

Nan Sato, Special Counsel in the firm's Philadelphia office, was elected to serve on the Board of Governors for the Philadelphia Bar Association, the oldest association of lawyers in the U.S. Nan is one of five newly elected officials chosen by members that will begin a three-year term on Jan. 1, 2022. Nan will work to further the mission of the Association in the Philadelphia region, which is to provide guidance on controversial legal issues; create a forum for professional support and information sharing; and to serve the public by providing general information on how to address their legal issues. At the forefront of the Board's goals for the coming year will be the expansion and continuation of its diversity, equity and inclusion programs.
