PITTSBURGH CLE SERIES: TIME TO TUNE UP YOUR COMPLIANCE AND ETHICS PROGRAM

Event

Jan 12, 2022

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm EST

As we turn the calendar to a new year, employers in all sectors take the opportunity to review their corporate governance, code of conduct and ethics programs. But, just what does a comprehensive program entail? This webinar will discuss the crucial aspects of a practical corporate governance program, including company risk assessment, code of conduct programming, diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives, internal investigations and whistleblower issues. It will then focus on the building blocks for designing and implementing an effective Compliance and Ethics program.

The session will also draw on the Department of Justice's criminal sentencing guidelines and how they are applied to private business organizations for lessons in what effective compliance programs must include and pitfalls that may exist for ineffective programs.
