

Sacramento Partner Forecasts a Renewed Push to Review California's COVID-19 Paid Sick Leave Law

News

1.07.22

In a SHRM article urging employers to audit their pay practices for compliance with federal, state and local laws, Ben Ebbink weighed in on the expiration of California's statewide COVID-19 supplemental paid-sick-leave law.

Ben said that "employers could see a renewed push in the state Legislature to revive the benefit as the coronavirus pandemic continues."

The article also discussed minimum wage changes, exempt salary thresholds, and other pandemic-related rules set to change in 2022.

Read the full article in SHRM (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Benjamin M. Ebbink

Partner

916.210.0400

Email

Service Focus

Wage and Hour

Related Offices

Sacramento