

Nashville Partner Chosen for Tennessee Bar Association's 2022 Leadership Program

News

2.04.22

Announced in The Nashville Ledger, Courtney Leyes was one of 34 attorneys from across the state chosen by the Tennessee Bar Association to take part in its 2022 Leadership Program.

Now in its 19th year, Leadership Law is designed to “equip Tennessee lawyers with the vision, knowledge and skills necessary to serve as leaders in their profession and local communities.” The class will meet for its first session in March, and then spend the six months learning about leadership in the legal profession, issues in the courts, policymaking in state government and the importance of community service.

Read more in The Nashville Ledger.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Courtney Leyes

Partner

615.488.2902

Email

Related Offices

Related Offices

Nashville

Memphis

Gulfport