MANAGING MARCH MADNESS IN CALIFORNIA – OFFICE POOLS, ALCOHOL, MARIJUANA, E-CIGARETTES, PIERCINGS AND OTHER MADDENING BEHAVIOR

Event

Mar 2, 2022

9:00 am - 10:00 am PST

March Madness captures the attention of millions of fans each year, however, the tourney may lead to worker productivity problems, even legal liability for employers. Betting pools at work are a common practice, and many employers turn a blind eye figuring that they can maintain morale and build camaraderie. Fisher Phillips attorney Hanlon, will discuss the legal exposure an employer may face from inter-office betting or gambling, and how an employer can avoid a related loss of productivity. We will also discuss other “maddening” behavior in the workplace from alcohol, tattoos, and piercing; as well as how to address the changing laws regarding marijuana and e-cigarettes.

This program has been approved for HRCI and SHRM credit.
