

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Patrick Collopy in Denver

News

2.17.22

Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Patrick Collopy has joined the firm as an associate in the Denver office.

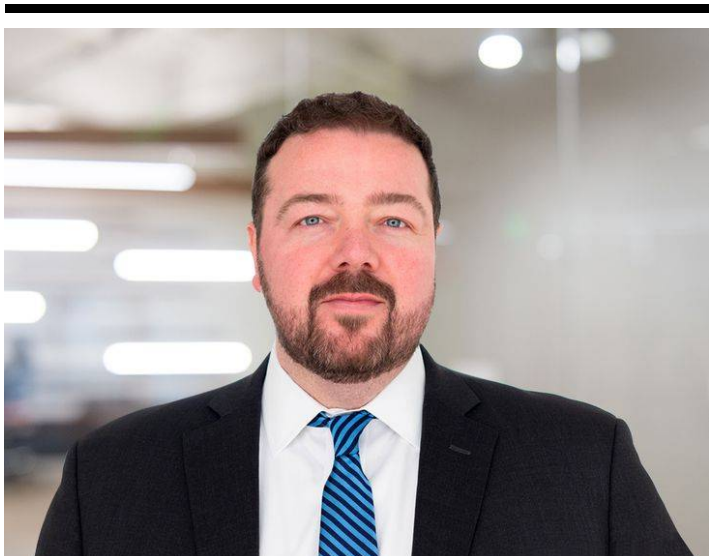

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Patrick represented employers in complex federal and state court litigation matters and in administrative hearings before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Department of Labor. At Fisher Phillips, Patrick will continue representing employers in workplace law disputes and will also provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Patrick is the second new attorney to join in Denver in 2022, bringing the lawyer count in that office to 24.

Patrick is a Certified Information Privacy Professional and is a member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals. He earned his law degree from Brooklyn Law School and his undergraduate degree from Fordham University.
