

State Supreme Court Sets High Bar on Handling of Biometric Information, Writes Fisher Phillips Attorney

Publication

4.01.19

The Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act is the most stringent biometrics privacy law in the country. In a bylined article for Business Insurance magazine, Chicago attorney Franklin Wolf breaks down the law and explains how a recent ruling—Rosenbach v. Six Flags Entertainment Corp.—increases the risks of workplace violations for employers. In his article, Franklin provides Illinois employers with guidance on how to operate in a “post-Rosenbach” world.
