

Louisville Partner Reviews OSHA Recordkeeping Impact on Construction

Publication

4.23.19

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration's electronic recordkeeping regulation has had a tortured existence since its introduction in 2016. The relatively short regulation was accompanied by a preamble that attempted to explain what OSHA meant by the regulation, but appeared to add requirements not specifically mentioned in the actual regulation. In a bylined article for Construction Executive, Louisville partner Todd Logsdon outlines OSHA's next steps, the current state of the law, and how construction executives should be prepare.

To read the full article, visit Construction Executive.

Related People

Todd B. Logsdon

Partner

502.561.3971

Email

Related Offices

Louisville