

A California Wage and Hour Check Up

Event

3.31.22

12:00 PM — 1:00 PM PDT

With so many competing priorities during the pandemic, it is easy for companies to lose focus of California's everchanging wage and hour laws and requirements. Don't make this costly mistake! Wage and hour issues remain a significant source of potential liability for companies.

Join us for this exciting lunch and learn where Fisher Phillips attorney, Christopher A. Gelpi, will review the most important recent wage and hour laws and outline best practices your company should start taking today to avoid the most common claims. He will also cover obscure Labor Code sections that are often overlooked and provide guidance on how best to comply with California's new COVID paid sick leave policy.
