

Insights, News & Events

TRIO OF FIRM ATTORNEYS EXAMINE SUPREME COURT'S UPCOMING LGBT DISCRIMINATION CASES

Publication
May 15, 2019

In their bylined article for The Recorder titled "How Does the US Supreme Court's LGBT Bombshell Resonate in California?," Portland Partner Richard R. Meneghello, Boston Partner Jeffrey A. Fritz and Sacramento Of Counsel Benjamin M. Ebbink examine the Supreme Court's decision to consider a trio of cases determining whether Title VII prohibits employment discrimination against LGBT workers.

Rich, Jeff and Ben examine the context of each case before the Court and the issues each pose before diving into how these cases might impact the California business community. Though it is somewhat of a nonstory for employers in California, it may urge employers based in California with operations elsewhere to examine and adjust their policies and practices.

To read the full article, visit The Recorder.

Related People

Benjamin M. Ebbink

Partner

916.210.0400

Jeffrey A. Fritz

Partner

617.532.9325

Richard R. Meneghello

Chief Content Officer

503.205.8044