

Ohio Lawyers Explain What the State's Latest Gun Legislation Means for Employers

Publication

3.25.22

Wolters Kluwer republished an insight piece in which Steve Loewengart, Nicholas Anhold, and Teresa Hardymon describe the potential impacts of Ohio's new gun law permitting all qualified adults to carry concealed, non-restricted firearms without a license. The authors explain what the new law means for Ohio's workplaces, and they offer employers a plan for addressing the changes.

To read the full article visit Wolters Kluwer's Labor & Employment Law Daily (subscription required).

Related People

Steven M. Loewengart
Regional Managing Partner
614.453.7606
Email

Nicholas G. Anhold

Associate

440.740.2145

Email

Teresa J. Hardymon

Associate

614.453.7615

Email

Related Offices

Cleveland

Columbus