Irvine Partner Usama Kahf and San Diego Partner David B. Monks, in their bylined article for Healthcare Business Today titled "Recruiting the Recruiters: How California Employers Can Circumvent Employee Non-Solicitation Contracts," look at the issue of employee recruiting and enforceability of employee non-solicitation contractual provisions. Usama and David explain that some healthcare employers may struggle to recruit workers because of these non-solicitation contracts. They break down a recent California appellate court decision involving healthcare staffing agencies and explore the scope of the decision, including how it may provide an opportunity for healthcare employers.
