

Financial Services Co-Chairs Provide Tips for Hiring from a Competitor

Publication

9.20.19

In their article for Credit Union Times, Rosemary Gousman and David Erb, co-chairs of Fisher Phillips' Financial Services practice, and Philadelphia attorney Jeffrey Csercsevits outline five best practices that can help to facilitate a smooth transition for a new hire and reduce the likelihood of a lawsuit being filed by their prior employer. They share tips on reviewing employment contracts, understanding restrictive covenants and leaving competitive information alone to reduce the risk of litigation.

To read the full article, visit Credit Union Times.

Related People

Jeffrey M. Csercsevits

Partner

610.230.2159

Email

David W. Erb

Partner

410.857.1399

Email

Rosemary S. Gousman

Partner

908.516.1060

Email

Industry Focus

Financial Services