

Your New Blueprint for California Arbitration Agreements After SCOTUS's Viking River Cruises Decision

Event

7.15.22

10:00 AM — 11:30 AM PDT

The U.S. Supreme Court not only handed California employers a long-awaited PAGA victory last month in the Viking River Cruises case, it plotted out a new pathway for employers to create and enforce workplace arbitration agreements. And now Fisher Phillips is ready to hand you a blueprint to help you navigate this new era. Join us for this interactive 90-minute webinar where our California team will review the impact of this decision and provide you with practical steps you can take to develop effective and compliant arbitration agreements. We'll also discuss what the future may hold for California employers in the wake of this critical ruling and help you prepare for what's to come.

The firm is submitting this webinar for HRCI and SHRM credit.
