

The ABC's of Employment: Sports Industry Misclassification Issues

Publication
9.25.19

In their article for the California Lawyers Association, San Diego attorneys Jason Fischbein and Adam Sloustcher outline how an employer classifies its workers has become the subject of hotly-contested litigation and how the sports industry may be impacted. Taking California's Dynamex decision into account, the authors review a recent case in the sports industry and why sports employers may need to reevaluate their independent contractor business models.
