

Lawyers Provide Insights on Philadelphia Emerging as a Leader on Workplace Regs

Publication

10.08.19

Just this last year, the Philadelphia City Council passed two of the most progressive workplace ordinances in the nation. In a bylined article for Law360 attorneys Rick Grimaldi and Samantha Bononno explain how these ordinances and other pieces of legislation have thrust Philadelphia into the forefront of municipalities enacting worker protections. The authors note that there is currently little data about the impact of these ordinances on city employers, but they offer up some important tips on what employers can do to ensure they are prepared to comply with the evolving local laws.
