Aug 3, 2022

What are the similarities and differences between OSHA and MSHA? How should a company that operates at both OSHA and MSHA regulated sites prepare? In this episode, Fisher Phillips' OSHA-focused podcast, Toolbox Talk, and MSHA-focused podcast, Mining Matters, join forces to compare and contrast the two agencies. Curtis Moore provides an overview of the OSHA regulatory scheme and how companies can best prepare for an OSHA inspection. Chris Peterson and Arthur Wolfson do the same for MSHA. The group then follows with a lively discussion comparing the key points for each and offers insights for how companies regulated by both agencies can best prepare.
