

Insights, News & Events

COLUMBIA PARTNER DISCUSSES DOL'S REVISED PAY EQUITY GUIDANCE FOR FEDERAL CONTRACTORS

News
Aug 18, 2022

In an interview with Law360, Cheryl Behymer discusses the Department of Labor's revised pay equity guidance for federal contractors and describes what employers need to know about compensation evaluation. The Department of Labor won't require companies to produce privileged communications when it reviews their internal pay audits. Cheryl explains the revision gives a company that conducts a compensation evaluation under attorney-client privilege three options. "They can provide the OFCCP with a redacted version; conduct a second, unprivileged audit; or provide an affidavit that includes when the analysis was completed," Cheryl stated.

To read the article visit Law360 (subscription required).

Related People

Cheryl L. Behymer

Senior Counsel

803.255.0000

Service Focus

Government Contracting,
Compliance, and Reporting

Pay Equity and Transparency

Related Offices

Columbia