

Atlanta Regional Managing Partner Serves as Regular Contributor to Multi Briefs

Publication
12.19.19

Bert Brannen, Regional Managing Partner of the firm's Atlanta office, was tapped by Multi Briefs, a leading publisher of industry stories for association members and trade professionals, to provide exclusive content on workplace issues. For 2019, he covered topics ranging from employee retention to workplace investigations. To access Bert's articles for the year, please click on the links below:

- January: Can you be held personally liable in an employment lawsuit?
- February: Getting ready for and managing an on-site visit by OSHA
- March: 6 tips for a successful telecommuting arrangement
- April: Tips for minimizing and avoiding bullying in the workplace
- May: Essential elements of an employment application
- July: 10 tips for retaining employees in a hot jobs market
- August: 8 tips for promoting employees
- September: Celebrate American workers this Labor Day
- October 2019: It's true at work: No good deed goes unpunished
- November 2019: Tips for planning a reduction in force if the economy loses steam
- December 2019: Tips for surviving your deposition in employment-related litigation and 9 practical tips for workplace investigations

Related People

D. Albert Brannen

Partner

404.240.4235

Email

Related Offices

Atlanta