

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Immigration Attorney in San Francisco

CHRISTINE CONDY JOINS GROWING IMMIGRATION TEAM ON WEST COAST

News

Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Christine Condy, an immigration attorney, has joined the firm as Of Counsel in the San Francisco office.

Christine brings more than 27 years of experience practicing immigration law and was previously an attorney at a regional law firm where she handled all phases of the employment-based immigration process. She has assisted clients with nonimmigrant B-1/B-2, H-1B, TN, L-1, O-1 and P-1 visa matters; PERM labor certification applications; immigrant outstanding researcher and extraordinary ability petitions; advanced degree and professional visa petitions; adjustment-of-status applications; consular processing of immigrant visas; and citizenship.

At Fisher Phillips, Christine will use her extensive background in business immigration law to help employers grow their business operations while helping employees navigate the U.S. immigration process. She joins a rapidly growing bi-coastal immigration practice at Fisher Phillips, including the arrival of immigration attorneys in California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, Michigan and Tennessee.

Christine earned her J.D. from Whittier College School of Law and her B.A. and B.S. from Santa Clara University.
