Event

Nov 10, 2022

2:00 pm - 3:00 pm EST

$49 per person

Fentanyl and meth present an undeniable scourge on American society – and workplaces across the country are caught up in this modern tragedy. Employers and in-house counsel can play an important role in addressing the opioid crisis, but need to be armed with critical information in order to best address it from a compliance standpoint in their own workplaces.

Join the leaders of FP's Workplace Safety Attorney Team as they welcome journalist and author Sam Quinones for a crucial conversation about the true nature of the fentanyl and meth crisis in today's society and provide you with practical lessons and drug testing policies you can put to use right away in your workplace. Sam's latest book, The Least of Us: True Tales of America and Hope in the Time of Fentanyl and Meth, chronicles the emergence of massive supplies of fentanyl and methamphetamine – both cheaper and deadlier than ever before – as they stream into every part of American society. This exclusive event is sure to sell out, so make sure you register today and reserve your place.
