Overview

Chris Caravello helps employers with business immigration matters, including nonimmigrant and immigrant applications and petitions for their workers, as well as best practices for compliance.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Chris was an associate at a national firm focusing on immigration law where he focused on corporate immigration matters with an emphasis on work-related visas and assessing eligibility and implementing case strategy for immigrant and nonimmigrant applications and petitions. His experience includes handling H-1B, H1B1, TN, L-1, and E-3 visas and I-140, I-130, and I-485 petitions, among others.

Chris' practice has included working with large clients from a range of industries, including consulting, information technology, and healthcare.

Chris is admitted to practice in Massachusetts, not admitted in Colorado, but is supervised by a licensed Colorado bar member.*
