As the country comes out of the COVID-19 pandemic and employers and employees alike adjust to a new working reality, the landscape of employment litigation in California continues to be as complicated as ever. With new safety standards and a Supreme Court decision impacting the future of PAGA claims, it's now more important than ever that employers understand the how to navigate this complex environment.

In the last five years, Fisher Phillips attorneys in California have litigated hundreds of actions and defended hundreds more cases in California. Our attorneys want to share their knowledge on lessons learned, successful approaches to effectively manage and defend litigation, and how to prepare for legal conflicts in the workplace.

During this two-part virtual conference intended for In-house Counsel and HR Directors, experienced Fisher Phillips attorneys will discuss the latest litigation, trends that impact business and effective preparation for fighting Wage & Hour
