Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, has been recognized by BTI Consulting among its Most Recommended Law Firms in 2022. For the first time, the firm is ranked as one of 27 law firms in the U.S. that top legal decision makers "highly recommend" to their peers.

"Highly recommended" law firms provide superior client service, demonstrate a culture driven by client focus, and understand their clients' business. The rankings are based on 340 in-depth telephone interviews with general counsel across the country.

"Superior client service is the cornerstone of our business and to have corporate counsel recognize those efforts by recommending us to their peers is the highest honor," said John Polson, Chairman and Managing Partner of Fisher Phillips. "Our firm is committed to providing innovative and nimble legal services to our clients to help them navigate the rapidly changing workplace. And as true business partners, we know there is more work to be done, but today's honor proves that our commitment to our clients is unwavering and our efforts to help them stay ahead of the curve are getting noticed."

Earlier this year, Fisher Phillips was recognized as a 2022 BTI Client Service Leader which revealed that the firm's client service is in the top 20 percent of law firms serving the world's largest clients. The firm was a leader in two of the 17 activities clients value most, consider most important, and have the most influence on hiring and rate decisions in driving superior client service. Additionally, J. Hagood Tighe was named to BTI Consulting Group's list of 2022 Client Service All-Stars. He was also awarded BTI's MVP distinction, an honor given to lawyers named to the list in consecutive years.
