ATTORNEYS PEN ARTICLE DISCUSSING VIRGINIA'S CONSUMER DATA PROTECTION ACT: HOW EMPLOYERS CAN PREPARE NOW

Publication
Nov 28, 2022

In a bylined article published in Virginia Lawyers Weekly, Risa Boerner, David Walton, and Kayla Panek provide a detailed description of Virginia's Consumer Data Protection Act, or the VCDPA, which goes into effect on January 1st, 2023. The authors explain that the act limits personal data collection to what is adequate, relevant, and necessary for the business's purpose for processing the data. They proceed to describe who the VCDPA will apply to, how it protects consumers, and what businesses should do to ensure compliance.
