

Florida Partner Pens Opinion Piece on Flattening the Curve

Publication

3.29.20

Charles Caulkins, Partner in the Fort Lauderdale office and Chairman of the Florida Chamber, recently authored an opinion piece published by the South Florida Sun Sentinel. In his viewpoint, Charles urges Floridians to follow facts, not fear, and to keep an eye on doctor's orders to help flatten the curve. He praises the state's efforts that have allowed essential workers to continue their vital roles in protecting their communities and reassures readers that Florida's business leaders are doing all they can do keep employees safe while preparing the economy for what's next.
