Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is proud to announce the election of 22 new attorneys to partnership. This year's class is the largest in the firm's history and spans 14 offices across the country with over 65% representing a diverse cross-section of the firm.

The new partners represent the firm's expansive employment legal counsel and industry offerings, including Data Security and Workplace Privacy, Employee Defection and Trade Secrets, Immigration, K-12 and Higher Education, Labor Relations, Litigation and Class/Collective Actions, PEO and Staffing, Wage and Hour, Workplace Safety and Catastrophe Management.

"We are extremely proud of this year's partner class," said John Polson, Chairman and Managing Partner of Fisher Phillips. "Each of these attorneys has built a dynamic practice and has demonstrated excellence in their legal practice, leadership within the firm, and a commitment to serving as trusted business partners to corporate counsel across the country. Demand for labor and employment counsel as a strategic part of business planning and continuity has exploded over the past few years and the size of this year's partnership class is a direct reflection of those needs. We are thrilled to welcome these outstanding attorneys into the firm's partnership and know their contributions will shape the future of our firm."
