Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Ryan Jebreil has joined the firm as an associate in the Irvine office. Ryan is the 17th attorney to join Fisher Phillips in Southern California this year as the firm continues to grow its labor and employment offerings in the state.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Ryan represented retailers, manufacturers, transportation companies, and construction companies in complex civil litigation and product liability matters in the Orange County Office of a large national law firm. His experience also encompasses general liability, contract disputes, personal injury, construction defects, professional liability, and real estate matters. At Fisher Phillips, Ryan will represent employers in workplace law disputes and will also provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Ryan earned his J.D. from the California Western School of Law and his B.A. from the University of California, Irvine.
