

The Changing Face of California Employment Law: Legal Considerations for 2023

Event

2.02.23

9:00 AM — 10:30 AM PDT

As 2023 begins, California-based businesses will once again have to contend with new and amended employment regulations. It's critical for these businesses to stay ahead of the game and we're here to help. Join Fisher Phillips attorneys Usama Kahf and Lisa Peterson on February 2nd for an in-depth look at the most important legal topics businesses are facing in 2023. They'll explore hot button topics such as salary range disclosure, new and amended employee privacy laws including the CCPA, PAGA, and other policies relevant to employers. Join us to learn about:

- Pay data and pay range disclosure
- How to revise your NDAs to comply with new federal law and harassment mandates
- Employee privacy and the California Consumer Privacy Act
- The changing face of PAGA and arbitration agreements in light of Viking River and the California Supreme Court Uber decision
- Cannabis laws

Fisher Phillips has applied for HRCI and SHRM credit.

As this event is sponsored by Fisher Phillips and Ceridian, the RSVP list and information provided at registration will be shared among both sponsors. By registering for this event, you understand you may be contacted by each sponsor.
