Overview

Arthur Ramirez is an associate in Fisher Phillips' Irvine office. He counsels and defends employers in a variety of employment law matters, including wage and hour violations, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and other similar claims. He also frequently advises clients on implementing and drafting various handbook policies.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Arthur worked as a legal assistant for the Public Law Center's Immigration and Domestic Violence clinics, where he assisted clients of diverse backgrounds. Arthur was also a judicial extern to the Honorable Scott C. Clarkson of the United States Bankruptcy Court.

Arthur earned his law degree from Chapman University Dale E. Fowler School of Law and graduated cum laude, in the top 9% of his class. While in law school, he was an academic teaching fellow for legal writing, a research assistant, and a merit scholarship recipient. Additionally, Arthur served as a mentor for the university's First-Generation Scholars Program.

Arthur was also awarded The National Order of Scribes as an Outstanding Law Graduate, chosen by the law school's faculty for those students who demonstrate outstanding legal writing and the highest levels of professionalism.

Prior to attending law school, Arthur earned his B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley, graduating summa cum laude.
