Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Regina Petty, Partner and Chief Diversity Officer, has been named a Black Leader of Influence by the San Diego Business Journal. The award celebrates the accomplishments of black leaders in the San Diego area and their contributions and commitment to the local community.

Regina is highlighted for her 40 years of legal service, her experience in multi-district and class action litigation as well as arbitrations, her past presidency of the San Diego County Bar Association, and her current role as Partner and Chief Diversity Officer at Fisher Phillips. She is also profiled for her leadership positions in local organizations, which include serving on the board of directors of Sharp Healthcare and the Board of Directors of the San Diego Bowl Game Association where she chairs the Governance Committee.

Regina's profile highlights her many professional distinctions, which include U.S. News - Best Lawyers in America, HRO Today's DEI Executive of the Year, and the San Diego Business Journal's SD500 Influential People and Top 100 Leaders in Law.

As Chief Diversity Officer, Regina plays an important role in realizing Fisher Phillips' strategic diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives. She provides leadership, vision, and direction to advance the diversity and inclusion values at the firm to achieve professional and organizational excellence. Under her leadership, the firm has rolled out numerous programs to help drive workforce initiatives and employee engagement, and because of these initiatives, the firm has made great strides in increasing diverse representation across all levels.
