Overview

Mitchell Anderson is a litigation associate in the firm's Charlotte office who represents employers in a variety of workplace-related issues and disputes.

Mitchell has experience drafting responsive pleadings, researching, devising and implementing discovery plans, taking and defending depositions, conducting dispositive motion practice and oral arguments, preparing experts and clients for trial, running mediations, and in appellate briefing.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Mitchell practiced at a national, full-service law firm and successfully handled general liability, legal malpractice, medical malpractice, wrongful death and other complex litigation matters in state and federal courts.
