

Fisher Phillips Continues Growth in Charlotte with Employment Litigator

News

3.23.23

Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Mitchell Anderson has joined the firm as an associate in the Charlotte office. He joins shortly after the arrival of Eric Cunningham and five other associates who bring the office headcount to 16.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Mitchell practiced at a national, full-service law firm and successfully handled general liability, legal malpractice, medical malpractice, wrongful death and other complex litigation matters in state and federal courts. At Fisher Phillips, he will represent employers in workplace law disputes and advise them on compliance with a wide range of federal and state employment laws and agency regulations.

Mitchell earned his J.D. from the University of Dayton School of Law and his B.A., cum laude, from the University of Kentucky. While in law school, Mitchell received the Pro Bono Commitment to Community Award. He has also been recognized as a Super Lawyers Rising Star every year since 2018 and is rated AV-Preeminent by Martindale Hubbell.
