

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Misa Keelan in Los Angeles

News

4.17.23

Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Misa Keelan has joined the firm as an associate in the Los Angeles office.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Misa served as a litigation associate at a Los Angeles-based labor and employment firm where she represented employees in wrongful termination claims through every stage of the legal process, from client intake to case resolution. At Fisher Phillips, she brings her perspective from the other side of the aisle to now represent employers in workplace law disputes and advise them on compliance. Prior to private practice, Misa was a law clerk for the County of Los Angeles, Office of the County Counsel.

Misa earned her law degree from Loyola Law School, where she served as Chief Production Editor and Staff Member for Loyola of Los Angeles International and Comparative Law Review. Before attending law school, she graduated with a B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Southern California School of Cinematic Arts.
