Anet Drapalski and Cheryl Schreck, partners in the firm's Los Angeles office, were recognized among the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2023 Women of Influence, a special publication that highlights outstanding female attorneys blazing their own trail in the region.

Of this year's edition, the Los Angeles Business Journal editor said: "The women covered in these pages have been recognized for exceptional legal skill and achievement across the full spectrum of responsibility, exemplary leadership as evidenced by the highest professional and ethical standards, and for contributions to the Los Angeles community at large."

Anet is profiled for her role as a key advisor to employers across California in a diverse group of industries, including technology, hospitality, fashion, financial services, music, and emerging companies. She is also recognized as the go-to source for the firm's Southern California attorneys to assist Latin American clients seeking to enter the U.S. market and is praised for her tireless efforts to avert litigation by providing preventative counseling for employers.

Cheryl is profiled for her over 30 years of experience in the Los Angeles business community and statewide in handling workplace investigations and other sensitive issues for employers. She is also highlighted for her expertise in handling high-stakes litigation and forming strategic partnerships with her clients both before litigation ensues and after a matter resolves to ensure that compliance issues are remedied proactively to avoid future litigation.
