

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Emeraude Lerebours in Tampa

News

5.03.23

Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Emeraude Lerebours has joined the firm as an associate in the Tampa office.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Emeraude was at an AmLaw 100 labor and employment firm, where, as a member of the firm's litigation team, she represented employers in workplace law matters, including preventive advice and counseling. She is certified by the Florida Supreme Court as a Circuit Civil Mediator. At Fisher Phillips, she will continue to represent employers in workplace law disputes and will also provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Emeraude earned her law degree from Stetson University College of Law, where she held multiple leadership positions, including President of the International Law Society and Secretary of the Labor and Employment Law Association. She was also a member of the Stetson BLSA Trial Team, where she honed her oral advocacy skills by competing in two competitions and finishing as a finalist in both. Before attending law school, she graduated with a B.A., cum laude, from the University of Florida.
