

Driving into the Future: A Consumer Privacy Primer for Auto Dealers

Event

6.01.23

11:00 AM — 12:00 PM PDT

In the wake of the California Consumer Privacy Act, eight other states have enacted their own consumer privacy laws, and similar legislation is being considered by more than a dozen state legislatures. With a hodge podge of different requirements for every law, untangling a dealer's compliance responsibilities, especially if they have dealerships in multiple states, can be a daunting challenge.

Fisher Phillips and ComplyAuto are here to help take the guesswork out of consumer privacy compliance. Join Fisher Phillips Partners Usama Kahf and Tony Isola, and ComplyAuto Founder and CEO Chris Cleveland to discuss the current landscape and future of consumer privacy law to help you stay on top of compliance.
