

Columbus Partner Discusses Common Misconceptions About Workers' Compensation

News

4.28.23

In an interview with SHRM, Bob Robenalt discusses common misconceptions about workers' compensation. He explains how the workers' compensation system varies from state to state. "For multistate employers, each state provides some significant distinctions in coverage issues. There also are many states that permit self-insurance, which can often provide a significant cost savings for large employers," said Bob. He also notes that "the workers' compensation system is designed to provide for coverage regardless of fault."
