Fisher Phillips, one of the country's preeminent labor and employment law firms representing employers, is pleased to announce that Teri A. Gibbs has been selected for inclusion in the National Bar Association's 40 Under 40 Nation's Best Advocates Award. This award recognizes the nation's top 40 lawyers under the age of 40 who exemplify a broad range of high achievement in the legal profession, including in advocacy, innovation, vision, leadership, and overall legal and community involvement.

"As one of the preeminent bar associations in the world, we have made these awards one of the centerpieces of our association—recognizing the 40 lawyers under 40 who are helping to advance the causes of justice, equality, professionalism, and community service," said Lonita Baker, NBA President. Teri, an associate in the firm's Los Angeles office, is recognized for her outstanding legal career and ability to advocate for her clients.
