Overview

Andrea Brizio Rivas counsels businesses in the full range of labor and employment issues, with particular experience in individual and collective employment relationships. A main focus of her work is liaising with U.S. counsel with respect to Mexican legal issues.

Andrea frequently works with employers to devise and implement preventive strategies and policies that appropriately balance the employer-employee relationship. These include best practices for compliance in Mexico, strategies to address important psychosocial risk factors in the workplace, and issues related to organizational diversity and inclusion.

Her clients span industries including healthcare, media, food, automotive, education, and construction.
