Overview

With more than 17 years of experience in the field, Christian Morales represents businesses in individual and collective labor relations risk management, compliance, workplace safety, and litigation matters. His work includes teaming with clients to create comprehensive strategies to foresee and manage contingencies and risks and to resolve labor disputes. He also helps clients design and implement programs and policies that respond to changes in Mexico's labor laws.

Christian has worked with clients from a cross-section of industries including insurance, food, pharmaceuticals, rubber, financial services, publishing, advertising, tobacco and sports.
