

New Jersey Office Continues Rapid Growth with Nicole Espin

News

10.30.23

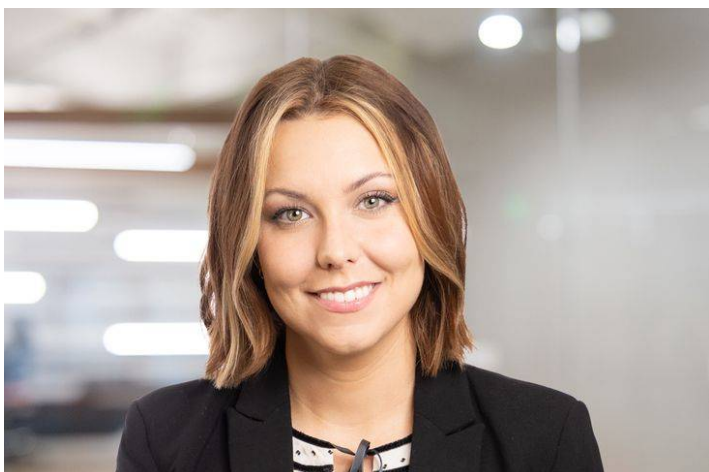

Fisher Phillips, an international law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Nicole Espin has joined the firm as an associate in the New Jersey office, which is experiencing a period of immense growth. Nicole is the ninth attorney to join the firm's New Jersey office in the last twelve months.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Nicole was an associate at a national labor and employment firm where she represented clients in class-action and single-plaintiff litigation in state and federal courts. She also counseled businesses as to compliance with major federal and state laws regarding hiring, termination, and employee leave, compensation, and benefits. At Fisher Phillips, she will leverage her previous experience to continue litigating and defending employers in lawsuits involving a variety of federal and state employment laws and agency regulations, including hiring, termination, employee leave, compensation, and benefits matters. She will focus primarily on the office's robust and expanding wage/hour class and collective action practice.

Nicole earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from Rutgers Law School and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Rutgers University. Nicole was recently honored in the 2024 edition of Best Lawyers "Ones to Watch".
