Fisher Phillips, an international law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Adanna Ferguson has joined the firm as an associate in the Fort Lauderdale office.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Adanna served as Senior Assistant City Attorney in the Labor and Employment Division for the City of Miami, where she represented the city in federal and state civil litigation, arbitrations, mediations, and administrative hearings. She was a go-to litigator for matters involving Title VII, the Florida Civil Rights Act (FCRA), the ADA, the Florida Veterans Preference Law, and the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). At Fisher Phillips, she will leverage this experience to represent employers in workplace law disputes and litigation and provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Adanna earned her J.D. from Northwestern University School of Law, and both her MBA summa cum laude, and her B.S., summa cum laude, from Florida A&M University.
