Fisher Phillips, an international labor and employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that it has been named a “Complex Employment Litigation Leader” by BTI Consulting Group. The ranking is a part of BTI’s Litigation Outlook 2024 report and is based solely on in-depth interviews with leading legal decision-makers. Fisher Phillips is one of eight law firms nationwide to achieve the “Leader” designation.

In addition to the BTI recognition, Fisher Phillips was just named 2024 “Law Firm of the Year” in the category of Labor & Employment Litigation by Best Law Firms® amid rapid growth in demand for the firm’s complex litigation capabilities across the country. The firm also achieved National Tier 1 Rankings for Labor & Employment Litigation and 25 of the firm’s offices received the prestigious Metropolitan Tier 1 Rankings for Labor & Employment Litigation.

Fisher Phillips’ Litigation practice spans the firm’s footprint with a team of litigators who assist clients with matters ranging from class and collective actions, to non-compete litigation, single-plaintiff discrimination or harassment cases. Because of the firm’s breadth and depth of experience, Fisher Phillips can represent employers in any federal or state courts across the country, as well as before any administrative agency or commission where a claim has been brought. By serving as a true business partner to clients, the firm’s Litigation practice provides creative, cost-effective, and cutting-edge tactics to help corporate counsel with litigation.
