Service Focus

- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Olivia Italiano defends employers of varying sizes and industries against claims of discrimination, harassment, wrongful discharge, retaliation, hostile work environment, as well as whistleblower lawsuits. Olivia also counsels employers on workplace-related decisions and best practices for hiring, firing, discipline, and accommodations, plus prepares employment policies, contracts, and handbooks.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Olivia served as an associate at a multi-practice, commercial law firm in New Jersey where she focused on employment and commercial litigation in state and federal courts. Prior to that, Olivia was a litigation associate at a New York law firm, where she concentrated on complex commercial and security matters, as well as employment disputes. After law school, Olivia served as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Joseph A. Portelli in Passaic County Superior Support, Family Division.
