

Denver Partner Discusses the USCIS Proposed Rule Related to H-1B Visas

News

12.04.23

In an interview with SHRM, Angelica Ochoa shares her insights on the comprehensive proposed rule from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) relating to the H-1B visa program for skilled workers. She discusses how the proposal might benefit employers to allow for greater flexibility with respect to being able to hire people with a wider range of degrees. To read the full article visit SHRM (subscription required).

In another article stemming from the same interview, Angelica also discusses how the USCIS proposal will modify the lottery registration selection system in an attempt to reduce fraud in the first step of the H-1B process. Click here to read this article (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Angelica M. Ochoa

Partner

303.218.3669

Email

Service Focus

Immigration

Related Offices

Denver